1. For the purpose of interviewing all businesses, students of Shantung University have been instructed to form small groups which poll the attitude of people concerning the arrest of exchange brokers said to be black market operators. The students ask what can be done to improve business, and whether or not business is flourishing. They report that firms do not cooperate at all and that the job is very difficult for them to accomplish.
2. Students who before the liberation were enthusiastic are now in despair. They feel that China will not be improved, that the rich will be poor and the poor will be poorer. They declare that the Communists do not practice what they preach, though written declarations and books are good.
